Steve Kerbel has been studying the kosher wine industry since the early 1980's, and has been the buyer for an informal kosher wine-buying club for most of the last 20 years. He has visited dozens of wineries in Israel, California and upstate New York, and conducts wine tastings for prospective wedding and b'nai mitzvah families to help them choose wines for their events. In his spare time as an expert on kosher wine, Steve is the Director of Education for Congregation B'nai Tzedek in Potomac, Maryland.
